

SENATOR TELLER'S OPINION.

Colorado, though more of an agricultural State than Nevada takes a deep interest in silver and its advocates are among the ablest advocates of free coinage. Teller, one of those Senators, was asked a day or two ago what he thought of the silver issue in its present shape and its effect on Colorado politics. He said as between Harrison and Cleveland there was not much choice. Colorado has been Republican and if the Democrats offer nothing more in the way of silver legislation than Republicans, the voters may stick to old affiliations. The People's party is likely to gain a good deal of strength and if things keep growing worse and silver keeps going down, there going to be a break. At the Aspen mine men were offered a choice between closing down the mine or a reduction of fifty cents a day in wages. When 3,000 workmen are put to that alternative it means a good deal for the men who let them act together politically or not. They will go with the party that promises most for silver as that means a difference of $15 per month in their wages.

The situation in Nevada is much the same as in Colorado, though it is worse here than there. In the Central and Eastern part of the State, there are hundreds of mines owned by workmen, who when silver was at par, made wages extracting ore and having it reduced on their own account. The present low price of silver has caused those men to suspend operations on all but the richest mines, consequently there is no work for custom mills, and the miner has to engage in some other pursuit, or leave the State. This is the cause of the great depression in business and scarcity of money. It is mockery to ask the man who was making good wages working his own mine, when silver was up and who now has to starve or seek employment elsewhere, to vote for a man who does not place the recoinage of silver above party success. It is a matter of the first importance to him, and he should not permit scheming politicians with honeyed words, to wheedle him into the notion that the free coinage of silver should not be made an issue in the Presidential campaign. To Nevada as well as Colorado the silver question is of more importance than the tariff or the offices and everybody who places the prosperity of the State above partisan prejudices, should insist on making it the paramount issue in politics.

THE SHIP OF STATE IN A VISIONARY GLIMPSE.

Our gold bug contemporary cannot mold Republican sentiment in Central and Eastern Nevada as easily as it claims to have fashioned the ideas of some unopinionated Democrats. The Silver State commenting on its course says:

While the voters of Eastern and Central Nevada are sold for silver regardless of party, those of the western part of the State are by no means so enthusiastic and seem inclined to put party first and give the silver issue a shove to the rear. A few papers, notably the Reno Gazette, go so far as to say that the free coinage of silver is not the question of paramount importance to the people of this State, placing the irrigation question first. The Gazette should know better, but if it does not it may rest assured that the voters of Nevada will not allow their ship of destiny to start upon an uncertain and dangerous voyage on a wily party irrigating ditch.

A DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE

The people of Lyon county have inaugurated a movement to free themselves from the yoke of party in the National campaign and vote for the interests of the State. This feeling of the voters of Dayton signed the call for a meeting to be held for the purpose of organizing and adopting resolutions. A copy of the call is printed in every county and meetings should be held for the purpose of organizing. Let Nevada, like Colorado, show that its people are neither the slaves nor dupes of political tricksters, who for self-aggrandizement would barter the general prosperity to Eastern moneybags and monopolists. Washoe has ever been noted for the independence of her citizens, let her not be lost in this movement for the public weal.

The vote on the final passage of the absolute Chinese exclusion bill, introduced in the House by Congressman Quay of California, stood: Ayes, 150 Democrats and 20 Republicans; nays, 24 Democrats and 19 Republicans. Almost all the Republican votes in favor of the bill came from the West. Earlier, the gold bug leader in the House, voted against the bill, and Bland, the silver leader, voted in its favor.

The Democrats elected John O. Curtin Mayor of Helena, Montana, by a majority of 513. Last year the Republicans carried the city by a majority of 438. The Democrats also elected six out of eight Aldermen, and the Republicans elected the Treasurer and Police Judge by a small margin.

The friends of Griffith, the man who made a confession at Honolulu, in which he claimed to be one of the Pinery train robbers, declare that he is of unsound mind and did not tell the truth. He was not in any way implicated in that crime, and knows nothing about it.

Last Monday was the warmest day on record in Boston in the month of April. The mercury rose to 77 degrees in the shade and a strong southwest wind prevailed. Since the Signal Service was established twenty years ago the temperature had not been so high in April.

House Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—A joint resolution agreed upon by the House Committee on Foreign Affairs calling on the President for information as to whether any American citizen of Jewish faith, is subjected by Russia to restrictions which violate the treaty, was reported to the House by Representative Chipman to-day. The accompanying report is a subject of great concern to the people of the United States. Every citizen in this country is entitled at home and abroad to treatment and protection which are the full right of citizenship under the Constitution.

A rumor is in circulation here to-day that Representative Hitt of Illinois will be appointed Minister to succeed Mr. Reid. Mr. Hitt this evening said it was the first he had heard of it and did not know his name had been mentioned in connection with the French mission.

The House to-day adopted a resolution requesting the Judiciary Committee to report back the resolution providing for an investigation of the Pinkertons.

Cannot Agree.

PARIS, April 6.—The Journal Des Debats to-day says that a serious quarrel is threatened between Spain and the United States owing to the latter country appointing Mr. H. Rand as Consul at Panapa, one of the Caroline Islands. Mr. Rand is an elder brother of Missionary Rand, the leader of the Methodists who were the authors of the recent troubles between the Spanish authorities and the natives of Caroline, Spain, the Debats adds, persists in her refusal to grant exequatur to Mr. Rand and the United States refuses to withdraw his appointment.

The Statement Was False.

FRESNO, Cal., April 6.—A letter was received here to-day by the mother of John R. Griffith, who claimed to be one of the Pinery train robbers. Griffith writes that he has run away from the ship Northern Light four times, being captured each time. He acknowledges that the statement he made to the Consul at Honolulu about the train robbery and his part in it was a lie. He made it in order that the Consul might hold him and not send him back to the ship.

The Paper Wins.

LOS ANGELES, April 6.—The strike of the Los Angeles printers began against the Times, August 5, 1890, twenty months ago, is ended, and the boycott upon the paper and its patrons has been declared off. The Union yesterday took final official action to that effect, and authorized public notice to be given accordingly. Both strike and boycott were unsuccessful.

Jealous of His Wife.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 6.—Arpino Dezanadine in a fit of jealous rage this afternoon shot his wife in the stomach and then shot himself through the head. After receiving the bullet wound the woman jumped from a second story window to the ground below, but no bones were broken and she will probably recover. It is thought Dezanadine died.

Oregon Republicans in Convention.

PORTLAND, Or., April 6.—The Republican State Convention to-day nominated Presidential electors and a delegation to the National Convention and also re-nominated Binger Herman as Representative in Congress. W. R. Ellis of Heppner was nominated for Congressman in the second district on the fifth ballot.

Election Returns.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., April 6.—11 p. m.—The vote thus far is: Brown, Republican, 16,250; Wardwell, Democrat, 16,048. The Prohibitory vote will probably be sufficient to defeat an election by the people. The Legislature is undoubtedly Republican.

At the conclusion of school age, attended in Brooklyn, Miss Harrison, of Chicago, told a touching story of the way in which women help each other—how one who comes to a "mother's" home brings her neighbor next time and shows such concern for others to relieve the benefits she received. The spoke of one woman whose two children were in school, called the citizens' club, in which a silver fee of ten cents a week for each pupil is charged. One week this woman brought a third child, the little daughter of a neighbor. She explained, for whose ten cents she would be responsible. After a week or two of prompt payment, she came one morning saying she had only fifteen cents of the thirty received, but would make it up, she hoped, before the week was out. "America's mother has died," she said simply, "and I've taken her to bring up along with my own."

"Fancy," said Miss Harrison, "a woman to whom a deficit of fifteen cents meant a week's pinching not hesitating before the care and maintenance of another child along with her own. I felt as if I could bend down and kiss the hem of that woman's garment."—Flor Point of View in New York Times.

Why Not a Provident Dress Society?

To girls with slender allowances any sudden emergency in dress occurring just when they have supplied themselves with a stock of garments for the coming season is often extremely embarrassing, and I wonder that no one starts a provident dress society, to which members would subscribe a small sum annually, and which would make grants out of its funds on such occasions as having to go into mourning; to go unexpectedly into a climate requiring quite different sort of clothing; to act as bridesmaid, and in some cases of marriage, when the relations are unable to provide any outfit; also in the event of a member being suddenly called to enter upon any new position requiring an immediate outfit on dress. Such a society, well and honorably conducted, would be a help to numbers of poor, and would encourage thriftiness, and often prevent them becoming victims of the habit of running into debt.

PECULIAR

Many peculiar points make Hood's Sarsaparilla superior to all other medicines. Peculiar in combination, proportion, and preparation of ingredients. Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses the full curative value of the best known remedies of the vegetable kingdom. Peculiar in its strength and economy. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the only medicine of which can truly be said "One Hundred Does One Dollar." Medicines in larger and smaller bottles require larger doses, and do not produce as good results as Hood's. Peculiar in its medicinal merits. Hood's Sarsaparilla accomplishes cures hitherto unknown, and has won for itself the title of "The greatest blood purifier ever discovered." Peculiar in its "good name at home"—there is now more of Hood's Sarsaparilla sold in Lowell, where it is made, than of all other blood purifiers. Peculiar in its phenomenal record of sales abroad, and no other preparation has ever attained such popularity in so short a time, and retained its popularity and confidence among all classes of people so steadfastly. Do not be induced to buy other preparations, but be sure to get the Peculiar Medicine, Hood's Sarsaparilla sold by all druggists. $1.00 per bottle. Prepared only by C. I. DAILY NEVADA STATE JOURNAL
PRICE OF DAILY JOURNAL,
FIFTEEN CENTS PER WEEK
Delivered by Carrier,
THURSDAY, APRIL 7, 1892
BREVITIES.

Dan Simpson of Smith's Valley is in Reno. Rev. Mr. Sisson arrived yesterday from Genoa. Bargains in GARDEN HOB at Lange & Schmitt's. Joe Marzen of Lovelocks is registered at the Palace. C. H. Cobb arrived yesterday from Seattle, Washington. M. Gelati, the pioneer stagecoach driver, arrived yesterday from Genoa. Lawn mowers, garden tools and paint and oils a specialty at Lange & Schmitt's. Plumbing, tinning and pipe work done at the lowest possible prices by Lange & Schmitt. Dr. Greenlaw and wife departed last night for San Francisco, where they intend residing permanently. Two good rooms, suitable for offices, four doors from Postoffice, for rent cheap. Inquire at JOURNAL office. Red and white clover, red top, blue grass, orchard grass and a full line of D. M. Ferry & Co.'s garden seeds at McCullough's. Professor Ring, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, leaves this morning for the Eastern part of the State on an official visit. The box sheet for the minstrels is not open yet, and will not be until after John Dillon gives the performance for which he is now billed. Mrs. Emily Pitt Stevens, the gifted lecturer, who is called "Our Demosthenes" by her admirers of the W. C. T. U., will be in Reno this week. A meeting of the Republican County Central Committee will be held at the office of Dr. J. A. Lewis next Saturday. See notice in another column. The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Reno Electric Light and Power Company will be held at the company's office on the 26th instant. See notice. Sheriff Bradford of Plumas county brought an Italian prisoner by the name of Joe Battalino in on the N.-C.O. yesterday, sentenced to one year in Folsom prison for burglary committed in Quincy. The weather continues variable; cloudy and sunshine by turns. Farmers say a good rain would be beneficial—as the showers of last week did not wet the ground more than three inches deep. A special train consisting of eight engines and six passenger cars, the State produce belonging to Louis Deane, and consigned to the San Francisco stock yards, left Lovelocks yesterday in charge of J. Kinkaid. The Directors of the Bank of Nevada are considering a proposition to build a three-story brick on Virginia street to accommodate their business. The matter will be submitted to the stockholders at the annual meeting in May. The prohibitory law has been sustained by the Supreme Court of South Dakota. A Yankton dispatch says this decision will close the twenty-two saloons which have been running in that city for the last year under the special license law. While Tom Evans and R. G. Jones were out riding in a light road cart last evening the cart broke down precipitating them to the ground. Mr. Jones fell with such violence that he broke his collar bone. Dr. Phillips was called to attend him and rendered all assistance possible. There is some activity in Pine Nut district. Some few are building and others are jumping claims. The case involving the title to an interest in the Zinn mine is now being tried at Genoa before Judge Risling. Several of the prominent lawyers of Carson and Virginia City are engaged in the suit. The JOURNAL acknowledges the receipt of a complimentary ticket to a grand uniform ball to be given by Company D, First Brigade, N. N. G., (Humboldt Guard) at Armory Hall, Winnemucca, April 18, 1892. The Humboldt Guard is said to have the finest armory in the State and no doubt they will have a pleasant time on the 18th. Yesterday afternoon A. C. McFarland's team was frightened while crossing the bridge and started to run. The wagon to which the horses were attached struck one of the bridge posts, breaking the traces and throwing Mr. McFarland from the wagon, bruising and cutting him considerably, but fortunately breaking no bones. The Indian method of fishing is rather cool for this season of the year. The red man takes his stand in the stream where the water is sixteen or eighteen inches deep and patiently waits for a bite. When his legs are benumbed with cold he wades to the bank, where he has a fire, warms up and again takes his stand in the water. At the annual meeting of the Southern Pacific Company held yesterday the following named persons were elected Directors for the ensuing year: C. P. Huntington, Leland Stanford, Charles F. Crocker, Thomas E. Stillman, Thomas Hubbard, A. N. Towne, J. C. Stubbs, E. H. Miller Jr., S. T. Gage, H. Huntington and George Crocker. Axel Westman, brought to the Inmate Asylum night before last from Humboldt county, died yesterday. He had been clerk at the Russ House, San Francisco, for several years, and had been drinking heavily lately. Friends sent him to G. V. Meacham's ranch on the Humboldt to sober him up, but he became so violent that he was committed to the Asylum. It is said that he had deeds for considerable property in Fresno, California.

EASTERN INTO.
Mining and Agricultural Notes From the South.
Bio Pinz, Iryo Co., California, April 4, 1892.
EDITOR JOURNAL:—Knowing that old-timers of your part of the Sage-brush State take a lively interest in the situation of their southern neighbors, I have resolved to send you greetings from time to time, and will undertake in the outset to send nothing but straight goods. The outlook for the coming season for Iryo is flattering indeed; especially in the true regard to MINING AND BORAX INTERESTS.
The central and northern portions of the county show veritable indications of a boom in mining ventures. Several investors are here from Kansas City, Mo., and are making a careful inspection of a large number of properties situated in the White Mountains opposite and north of the hamlet of Big Pine. Holders are disposed to be reasonable, and several transfers of claims will take place in the near future. Ben Morton of Arizona, Topsy Johnson, formerly of old Washoe District, now of Kansas City, Mo., with Frank G. Mitchell and John Chamberlain, also of that town, have examined silver and bismuth mines in Deep Springs District, about twenty miles northeast of here and owned by Lou Payson, John Canda, W. H. Thimney, Frank Higgs and others. The deal here referred to will cover several groups of mines, and are in a location blessed with more than an average of natural advantages, such as wood, water and an agricultural surrounding. These men look on the coinage problem as so nearly a national proposition that it must soon meet a fair solution, otherwise they would seek only gold claims. A number of old-time sagebrushers, without regard to political proclivities, are unanimous and hearty in their praise of the gallant effort of Comrade Bartine in the coinage fight, laughing heartily at the manner in which he slew the gold edged "sage" in the Wall street uniform.
Alford Station on the C. & C. R. R., two miles and a half from here, is the shipping point of the borax output of Saline Valley. The proprietors of the first plant at Saline reside at Big Pine, Messrs. Conn and Trice, and are reaping a fair profit from their borate lands. The Saline Valley borax works, to be operated by Lent, Horton and Brown, of J. Milner of Benton, will be in full blast within the next month, and the output will be largely increased. Extensive locations of borate lands are held by other parties, the owners of which have contracts of sale duly executed. H. W. Barton, lots of Aurora and Candelaria, and a loyal son of the battle-born State, has extensive and valuable claims of borate soil at Saline Valley, and next to the time-honored ethics of Democracy, they claim his attention.
THE CROP OUTLOOK
Of the county is encouraging, and an unusually large acreage has been seeded. Several new water schemes are incubating, and our neighbors of South Iryo will soon have a canal filled with fruitful promises of citrus products and certainities of permanent home-lands. Should any "Swampers" test the accuracy of any "Swampers" herein contained, let them come down in the mallow lark and daisy period of 1892 and the hamlet will grant them the freedom of the town, and a copy of the recognition given to your delegation of campers who spied out our land last Summer.
SWAMPERS.
O. E. S.
Adah Chapter No. 4 Gives a Return Party to Esther Chapter No. 3.
Adah Chapter No. 4, Order of Eastern Star, gave a return party to Esther Chapter No. 3 of Carson last evening as an expression of their appreciation of the treatment they received at Carson some time ago. A special train with about fifty ladies and gentlemen aboard arrived from Carson at 7:30 last evening, and were met at the depot by a Reception Committee from the Chapter of this place and conducted to Masonic Hall, where everything was in readiness to receive them. During the evening a fine program was rendered, consisting of songs, declamations and instrumental music, after which dancing was indulged in until the exercise had sufficiently sharpened the appetites of those present that they could fully appreciate the bounteous collation to which they were to be seated, and to which all did full justice. Twelve o'clock, the hour appointed for the return of the visitors, arrived all too soon, and amid many expressions of hope for another as pleasant evening in the near future the guests took their departure.
Among those from Carson were Irene Coffin and wife, S. Summerfield and wife, Miss Summerfield, Sam Longbaugh and wife, P. H. Gordon, Miss Douglas, J. P. Woodbury and wife, Judge Murphy and wife and two daughters, H. Piper and wife, Miss Maggie Gordon, C. H. Galusha, Miss A. Galusha, Miss A. Tobriner, Geo. Richard and wife, C. H. Feters, Miss L. Swift, Miss Lillie Wright, Mrs. E. O. Knapp, Mrs. Kennedy, Chas. Peterson and wife, Mrs. J. A. Newnam, Mrs. M. Cohn and daughter, A. Jacobs, wife and daughter, J. A. Wagner and wife, John Elliot and wife, E. B. Zbriskie, James Hopp, G. W. Keith, J. D. Kersey and wife, H. M. Clemens and wife, E. J. Stevenson and wife, Charlie and Frank Bokowitz, Joseph Platt and wife, Robert Lowery.
Postal Service Examinations.
George B. Hoyt of Washington, D. C., assisted by H. P. Krause, yesterday examined a number of young men who desire positions in the United States Postal Service. There were two applicants for departmental clerkships and five for railway service. The applicants state that the examination was very thorough and consisted of writing, abbreviations, geography, railroad transportation, arithmetic, spelling, copying and reading addresses. The applicants also state that the examiners were very kind and rendered all assistance possible consistent with their positions.

UNDER CONSUMPTION.
Why Prices of Farm Products are Low.
EDITOR JOURNAL:—A great many people cannot understand why it is that food products remain so low in price, when it is a conceded fact that there is less food in the world than there has been for many years. To my mind the cause is very plain; it is under-consumption. There are a great many million people in Europe and quite a few in the United States who are best but very poorly and scantily fed, in short their finances are in such a state that they cannot afford to eat. Their money and credit are both gone. The millionaire bondholders have got mortgages on all they possess; a hard year comes, they are bled with their interest; the bondholder's demands leave them penniless, and starvation is the result. Consumers are destroyed, the demand for food slackens, the price drops, farmers are clinched and bondholders and money kings reap another harvest, by getting more mortgages on what little property the farmer has left. The money barons have so managed the financial legislation of Europe and the United States that they have got the clinch on the common people and they are working it for all it is worth. They practically say to the debtors: "We have got the drop on you, and you can't help yourselves. You owe us thirty legal tender dollars for every legal tender dollar there is in existence; we are going to keep money so tight that you can never hope to get out of debt. Our bonds cover everything you possess; interest is piling up; in some cases we take new bonds to pay back interest; so your case is hopeless. You might as well give up trying to have Congress make money easier, for we will not allow it, and our desires are always recognized as sacred by both Democratic and Republican Administrations." This is the whole truth in a nutshell; this is the cause of under-consumption and the low price of food. Pirate and financial legislation in Europe and the United States has put the producing element completely at the mercy of the money kings, and no matter how short crops are, the money barons will starve enough people to death to keep prices of grain and food so low that the poor farmer will have to sell his crops at a loss. These are my views on this matter. Will some bondholder, who has plenty of time to reason from cause to effect, give his views on this important subject; it might be very interesting reading.

FREE COINAGE AND IRRIGATION
A Call for a Meeting of Independent Citizens.
The following call has been issued in Lyon county:
We, the undersigned, citizens and voters, the bone and sinew of Lyon county, State of Nevada, band ourselves together to further our interests and the interests of the State; and we realize that to accomplish this, we must stand upon a platform having these two planks: First, Free Coinage of Silver; Second, Irrigation Legislation. We claim to be independent citizens, and will act independently of any party that does not support our interests. We will meet on a stated day to organize and draw such resolutions as we deem best for our interests.
This call was signed by 116 citizens of Dayton in three hours, among whom are prominent Republicans and Democrats. In a note to the JOURNAL signed by G. P. Mack, W. W. Byram, T. J. A. Flaws, A. J. Lofus, J. R. Shaw, F. W. Fairbanks and J. A. Hooton, all well known Republicans, and by J. E. Gignoux, Henry Wood, John Lothrop, W. R. Davis, W. J. Douglass and J. H. Rae, Jr., well known Democrats, it is stated to be the general belief in Lyon county that the agitation of free coinage and irrigation legislation up to the present time is but a ripple, compared to the tidal wave that will follow in all the silver and irrigation States, provided a systematic and organized effort is made in that direction. The people of Lyon county are weary of the oppressive legislation of the past years—retarding and crushing out our industries, while those of other sections of the country are protected by bounty and tariff laws, and the move is to cut loose from party ties and stay with the party that stays with Nevada in the ensuing National campaign. Is not this the sentiment of the States and Territories possessing arid lands and engaged in silver mining? If they will consolidate for united action in National politics they will be a factor that can demand and will receive that recognition to which they are reasonably and justly entitled. Let us go to work at home, urge others abroad to do the same and soon the whole Pacific coast will vibrate in the throes of a mighty agitation that will command the attention of the two great parties of the country and most speedily result in that legislation to foster our industries, for which we have contended in the past and must fight for now and in the future, if we would realize a successful fruition of our hopes and aims.
Eyes and Ears Open.
And you will see and hear many things to your advantage. With open eyes you cannot fail to see the advertisement of Simons' Liver Regulator, and with ears open you will constantly hear of the relief it gives millions who suffer with indigestion, dyspepsia, constipation or biliousness. A dose now and then and you'll not know anything about malaria, that miserable, tired-out feeling.
Republican Central Committee.
All members of the Republican County Central Committee of Washoe county, Nevada, are requested to meet at the office of the Secretary in Reno, Saturday evening, April 9th, at 8:30 p. m.
J. F. EMMITT, Chairman.
J. A. Lewis, Secretary.
Card of Thanks.
The undersigned respectfully tenders her heartfelt thanks to her friends and the public generally for their sympathies and assistance during the illness of her husband, the late D. C. Simons.

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

Chinese at War.
Yesterday afternoon two saffron colored sons of the Flowery Kingdom got into a dispute over a game of cards, and words culminated in blows. They finally got on to the sidewalk, where they clinched and fell. The upper heathen, after choking his adversary for a while, was suddenly struck with the idea that he did not have a gun and that he might get the worst of it when he let his man up, and with a jump that landed him half way across the street, he sprinted down Virginia street at a pace that would have made Beethove wonder if his record was broken, had he seen him. The almondy-slayer, who, up to this time, had been the under dog in the fight, saw a chance to regain his reputation as a fighter and bad man generally and struck out after the fleeing Mongolian, stopping long enough to pick up a rock nearly as large as his head. After chasing his man a short distance and finding he could not overtake him he threw the rock, which went wide of its mark, but narrowly escaped breaking the glass in Miss Gibbs show window. There was no serious injury inflicted to either party, and at last accounts they had repaired to Chinatown to settle the difficulty.

The Elite Minstrels.
Under the head of "New To-day" is the advertisement of the Elite Minstrels. The Minstrels consist entirely of local talent, which is second to none in the State. The boys have been practicing and rehearsing diligently for some time, and a first class performance is guaranteed. A JOURNAL reporter witnessed a full rehearsal of the company Tuesday evening, and was agreeably surprised at the manner in which everything passed off, and by the time they give their performance, which will be on the 19th, they will be capable of giving an entertainment that would do credit to professionals. The proceeds are to be donated to the Reno Lyceum. The Lyceum, from a financial point, has not met with the success that it deserves, and those who desire to show their appreciation of such a laudable undertaking cannot show it to better advantage than by patronizing the Elites. The boys should be greeted with a crowded house, and undoubtedly will be.

Women to the Front.
Lassa, the principal city of Thibet, is a remarkable place for one thing—government recognizes the ability of women to manage and control a large proportion of the retail trade, that at certain seasons of the year demands unusual attention. From December to March a brisk business is carried on with "neighbores from abroad." Thus, the distinguished explorer, relates that chintzes, rich carpets, attractive silk stuffs and other commodities in great variety and large quantities are brought from western China; and from other quarters appear traveling merchants, with well laden caravans and horses, revealing a tempting display of Russian goods, among which may be found gold lace, silken textures and peculiar styles of jewelry, much in request in the cities and villages of Thibet; also many kinds of furniture are included in the list, and eastern Thibet fails not in ample provision of much prized muck.
The owners of these valuable "packs of richness and elegance" throw themselves heart and soul into the work of disposing of their various properties, for in three months "the season of absence from home with them is past, and early in March they must again take up the claims of farm and store and shop in their own land."—Harper's Bazar.

German Syrup

For children a medicine should be absolutely reliable. A mother must be able to pin her faith to it as to her Bible. It must contain nothing violent, uncertain, or dangerous. It must be standard in material and manufacture. It must be plain and simple to administer; easy and pleasant to take. The child must like it. It must be prompt in action, giving immediate relief, as children's troubles come quick, grow fast, and end fatally or otherwise in a very short time. It must not only relieve quick but bring them around quick, as children chafe and fret and spoil their constitutions under long confinement. It must do its work in moderate doses. A large quantity of medicine in a child is not desirable. It must not interfere with the child's spirits, appetite or general health. These things suit old as well as young folks, and make Boschee's German Syrup the favorite family medicine.

ENGAGED. The little bond that links your life to mine. Seems slight and fragile, do you think? Well, And near the changes of the coming time. When life is dark and all is bleak and cold? And do you think that, pushed by pain, We can take our lives and love again?

TALENT MISDIRECTED. A Pretty Canadian Girl's Skillful Work in Making Illegal Money. For nearly nine months the public has been systematically defrauded by the skillful conivance of an adept at altering bank notes. The man or woman who conceived the idea and operated the system must have had confederates, as the work was carried on somewhat extensively.

THE COMPLAINT first came from the Dominion bank officials. One of their experts found among the bills one day a ten dollar note which was about three-eighths of an inch shorter than the legal length. He examined the bill more minutely, and discovered that a small piece was missing from a place almost in the center of the note. Thinking that this might have been torn out accidentally, nothing was thought of the occurrence until a few days later another bill of the same denomination turned up, short in length to the same extent as the first.

THE DETECTIVE department was communicated with, and the short bills which continued to come in were handed over to them. It was several months before they were able to understand how the perpetrators of the fraud could be benefited. At last they had nine of these short bills, and an analysis of the different places where the cutting operation had been performed solved for them the problem.

There had been enough paper taken from these nine bills to make, if properly put together, a tenth note almost as long as the other, which would pass anywhere undetected. The detectives knew that the work was going on, and an officer was put on the case especially to watch the paper. Several weeks ago he suspected that the operator was a woman, and close watch was kept over her.

Yesterday a warrant was sworn out accusing a pretty young woman named Catherine Rhodes with altering and uttering Dominion bank bills. She is only eighteen years of age and lives with her father, Robert Rhodes, a laborer, at 45 Wardell street. It is understood that the operators, whoever they are, have been making five dollar notes in the same manner out of bills belonging to other Canadian banks. The cutting out work was evidently done with a razor and by a cunning hand.—Toronto Globe.

THE COURTESY OF LOVE. There is a false idea about in the stream of life, which is that when people love we can be as close to them, that because they know we love them they will forgive every lack of courtesy. Now, this is absolutely untrue; the closer two people are united by the bond of love the more necessary is it for them to observe every law of politeness. Love is not so very difficult to gain, but it is very difficult to keep. You can afford to be rude to everybody else in the world than to the people who love you. Being a good girl, you think that you are not rude to anybody, but just remember how you treat Tom. You take his love as a matter of course, you think he doesn't want you to consider him first and best.

Love, my dear girl, is a flower that needs constant attention, and the very minute it is neglected, left too long in the glaring sun of indifference, or in the cold wind of selfishness, it dies. And love is never resurrected. I don't want you to give Tom too much. Save something for the husband—the kisses it will be his right to claim, the encircling arms that it will be his pleasure to have. But give Tom your words of affection, the looks that tell him so much and the unselfishness that goes to make love, and without which there is no love, but only a miserable imitation.—Ruth Ashmore in Ladies' Home Journal.

A Warm Waist. Here is a prescription for keeping warm without a jacket: Buy four large chamois skins and a paper pattern for a high necked undershirt. Cut the waist according to the pattern with this exception: the chamois should not quite come down to the waist line. Punch a few holes in the leather for ventilation, trimming them neatly with a pair of sharp scissors. Line this with silk and you will have a delightfully comfortable little garment that will have all the warmth of a jacket, and that will not take up any room to speak of when worn under the waist of the dress.

Cloth skirts which are tightly fitted over the hips may also be lined in this way from the waist to the distance of a foot; this will prove also to be of great protection from the treacherous spring winds, and will not detract from the slender look of the gown.—New York Tribune.

THE MONARCH SALOON. FINEST WINES, LIQUORS AND CIGARS. GEORGE HUMPHREYS, PROP. 1720

A Lady's Visit to the Dispensary. As usual, I paid my obligations only visit to Queen Margaret. I had been long in the hospital, and the doctor who was in charge of the dispensary, who had been the queen's chief physician in waiting, and friend during the last twenty years. After a few days I received a reply stating that her majesty would be pleased to receive me the following Tuesday at 1:30 p. m.; so accordingly on the appointed day and hour I was ready, dressed in my best blue and tucker (taking advantage of court mourning to wear a pretty black silk dress trimmed with jet embroidery, and bonnet to match), and arrived at the Dispensary about 1:30 p. m. The master of the ceremonies announced my name, when I made a profound reverence at the open door, another in the middle of the room, and another when I kissed her majesty's hand.

To me she said, "Ah, you have put on spectacles." "Oh, Majesty, I am so short sighted that I have been obliged to do so." "And I also," replied the queen, "to the displeasure of my husband, who has a great dislike to spectacles, so I cannot wear them when he is present; and I used to be extremely long-sighted, like my mother; but the longest sight of us all is my son, who recognizes people at an immense distance off, a thing which makes me very uneasy, thinking perhaps his sight will fail him as mine has done," and thus chatting on one subject or another my visit passed off, lasting about half an hour, the queen talking volubly all the time. When she has had enough of you she rises, gives you her hand to kiss and you retire in the same order in which you entered her presence. —Modern Society.

A Mania for Calendars and Maps. In the back part of one of the office buildings in Broad street, and on one of the upper floors, there is a small room, the walls of which are thickly hung with calendars and maps. A young broker occupies the room, and he is possessed of such a mania for illuminated calendars and railroad maps that he frequently neglects his business to go on collecting tours. He has several score of calendars for the year 1902 of various sizes and colors, all of which he has begged or pilfered from other offices. Some of these calendars are very elaborate and handsome. Of railroad maps this peculiar young broker has fifty or more, representing the principal roads in this country. —New York Times.

NO OTHER Sarsaparilla combines economy and strength like HOOD'S. It is the only one of which can truly be said "100 Doses $1."
